

KRISTIN A. LEONE
112 W Taunton Ave Berlin, NJ 08009
Cell (609)760-4657
paramoursally74@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

DeSales University, BSN, May 1998
Drexel University, MSN-Clinical Nurse Leadership (CNL) June 2019

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Host-rvntelevision.com. Breaking Barriers is a live talk show style program with a diverse scope of topics and guests. Examples include Veterans and their business, Veteran Service Organizations, adults/children making a difference in their community and/or overcoming obstacles, health/wellness/safety, and awareness of an array of topics/events. Guest interviews are conducted in studio or via zoom, and last 30 minutes. Breaking Barriers gives viewers education, motivation, and inspiration for their daily life.

Registered Nurse, Intensive Care Unit-April 2020-present. Intensive Care Unit Nurse at Virtua Voorhees.

Clinical Nursing Instructor-January 2020-present. Clinical nursing instructor for Gwynedd Mercy, Rutgers University & Drexel University in Medical-Surgical, Pediatric, and Critical Care areas.

Nazareth Hospital, August 2017-November 2019. Clinical Educator for the Emergency Department and Cath Lab. Teach at general nursing orientation, assist with new hire orientation schedule, teach in-services on various topics, arrange in-services with product representatives, member Code Committee, ICU/ED Collaborative, Stroke Committee, mentor new RN graduates, and assist nursing students' observation experience in the ED. Presenter at ED symposium. Teach clinical situations, coordinate mock codes with use of iStan simulation mannequin.

Bayada Nurses, May 2008-present. Clinical Educator- responsible for interviews, annual competencies, counseling employees, preceptors/orienteers, documentation review, teach introduction to pediatrics and trach/vent courses, QA/PI, teach in-services, and run simulation lab. Per Diem Registered Nurse- responsible for providing direct care to children/adults receiving nursing services in their home with trachs/vents, DYFS transports, substitute school nurse, camp nurse.

United States Navy-December 2010-Present. Registered Nurse Officer in the Nurse Corp. Deployed to Kandahar, Afghanistan February 2015-October 2015, critical care nurse in the Role 3 Hospital, attend to patients in the ER during mass casualty situations, function as charge nurse. Unit Nurse Leader at Ft. Dix-attend to medical needs of sailor's pre/post mobilization, attend medical training opportunities, mentor/educate new nurse corps sailors, assist commanding officer, assist training officer to gather data, ensure mandatory education/training completed for the unit nurses, and prepare reports in Excel. Officer in Charge at Operation Commanding Force.

St. Christopher's Hospital for Children-September 2012-November 2013. Registered Nurse, Critical Care Transport Team, responsible for transport of patients from hospitals without pediatric services to St. Christopher's Hospital for children.

ATC Healthcare-May 2010-2012. Registered Nurse responsible for providing direct care to patients in the PICU, NICU, and Mother/Infant Units.

Lincoln Technical Institute-September 2010-December 2011. Instructor- LPN Program. Teach Anatomy & Physiology, Maternity/Pediatrics, Professional Awareness II, and Clinical I. Provide tutoring.

Newborn Nurses, November 2009-November 2011. Registered Nurse responsible for teaching visits for adults/children well mom/well baby, NG feeds, wound care, catheterizations, preemie visits, DYFS transports on a Per Diem basis.

Shriners Hospital for Children, June 2008-August 2009. Director of Critical Care Services. Responsible for oversight of day-to-day operations, staff, Co-Chair of Critical Care Committee, Code Team Co-Chair, Performance Improvement Committee, patient flow throughout the hospital, provide bedside care, representative of nursing leadership and all education, programs, and projects related to critical care and emergency response.

Loving Care Pediatrics, July 2007-May 2008. Clinical Manager responsible for managing 20-25 clients who receive skilled nursing services in their home. Responsible for all clinical activities. Implements, coordinates, monitors, and evaluates clinical services and options necessary to meet an individual's needs, either directly or in a supervisory capacity, within the scope of services offered by the agency.

Gift of Life, March 2007 –June 2007. Transplant Coordinator responsible for evaluating potential organ donors in an ICU setting. Once family consent has been obtained, allocate organs to recipients, medically manage donors, accurate documentation of donor vitals-intake/output/medications, and arrange for transportation of surgeons to the hospital to recover the organs, arrange for operating room time, supervise recovery process in the operating room, & ensure that organs are properly stored and labeled.

Bayada Nurses, June 2006 to March 2007. Nursing supervisor responsible for managing a caseload of 75-80 clients who are receiving either home health aide or nursing services in their home. Responsible for supervising certified home health aides, LPN's, and RN's who are caring for clients in their home. Also responsible for teaching and orienting aides and nurses to Bayada policies/procedures. Teacher for ACE class that certifies nurses to care for clients who have tracheostomies and ventilators.

The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, December 1999 to May 2006
Registered Nurse at Voorhees Ambulatory Center; Preparing/caring for patients pre/post

operatively. Obtain health histories prior to day of surgery and post-surgical follow-up. Charge nurse duties.

Registered Nurse in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit; Responsible for inotropic medications, arterial lines, ventilators, tracheostomies, CVVH, ECMO, intra-cranial pressure monitoring, and externalized ventriculo-peritoneal shunts. Preceptor, resource, and charge nurse duties. Teach trachs & vents at general nursing orientation. Teach in-services in PICU.

Hahnemann University Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa, September 1998 to December 1999;
Registered Nurse in the Surgical Telemetry Unit; Responsible for all aspects of patient care. Received patients from various departments and transferred them to other units. Charge nurse duties and preceptor.

CERTIFICATION:

Clinical Nurse Leader (CNL)
New Jersey Registered Nurse
Pennsylvania Registered Nurse
Advanced Cardiac Life Support
Pediatric Advanced Life Support
Basic Life Support
Trauma Nurse Core Course-Instructor
Stop the Bleed-Instructor
Navy Trauma Training Course
Fundamentals of Critical Care Course
Podium Presenter at Nursing of Children Network annual conference 2016