

Ann-Marie Adams, Ph.D.

EDUCATION:

---

Howard University, Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) with distinction: US History, Aug. 2006 to Dec. 2010
Quinnipiac University, Master of Science (M.S.): Journalism, Spring 2002 to May 2004, summa cum laude
Brooklyn College, Bachelor of Arts (B.A.): Journalism, July 1994 to Jan. 1999, cum laude
Boston College, Paralegal Certificate, May 2007

ENGLISH/JOURNALISM/U.S. History TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

---

Connecticut State Colleges and Universities, U.S. History, African American History, Dec. 2010 to present
Howard University, U.S. History, History Assistantships, Aug. 2006 to Dec. 2010
Howard University, Journalism 101 and Advanced News Writing, Aug. 2006 to Dec. 2006
Tunxis Community College, Classical Origins, Advanced English Composition, Sept. 2005 to Aug. 2006
Quinnipiac University, Journalism 101 and Feature Writing, Aug. 2002 to Sept. 2005
Capital Community College, Adjunct Professor/Tutor, English Composition, Aug. 2001 to May 2005
Brooklyn College, English Language Tutor/Teaching Assistant, ESL Course, Aug. 1996 to June 1998

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

---

The Washington Post, Race and Education Contributor, April 2012 to present: writes articles for a national audience.

The Hartford Guardian, Editor and Publisher, January 2004 to present: writes, edits and publishes editorials and articles, currently writing a long narrative, nonfiction about Sheff v. O'Neill.

Howard University, Quest Public Relations Specialist, Aug. 2006 to Aug. 2008: wrote and edited stories for Howard graduate magazine, Quest; wrote press releases, coordinated photo shoots and did other duties as necessary.

FOX News, Associate Producer, Nov. 2004 to Dec. 2004: wrote vo/so, teases, and the daily dayside newscast, and did duties assigned by producer.

Independent Press Association, Reporting Fellow, Dec. 2003 to Dec. 2004: wrote a series about Sheff v. O'Neill and The School to Prison-Pipeline.

People Magazine, Regional Reporter, June 2002 to Jan. 2004: reported stories for People's NY bureau.

The Hartford Courant, Staff Writer, June 1999 to June 2002: researched, reported, wrote and edited stories for daily and weekly publications. covered suburban and Hartford school districts, co-wrote award-winning series.

Norwich Bulletin, Government Reporter, June 1999 to Jan. 2000: covered local government in five towns, while doing trend and enterprise stories. covered day police beat on Sundays and wrote spot news stories.

Times-Herald Record, Education and Government Reporter, Jan. 1999 to May 1999: covered local government in two towns, breaking news and feature writing for the paper of record in Middletown, New York.

Sunday Morning newspaper, Riverside Church, New York, Freelance Writer, Jan. 1989 to Jan. 1990.

Freelance: Education News Daily, Bridgeport Post, Jamaica Gleaner, The Root D.C., The Root, and Ebony magazine.